INDUSTRIES

We dare to imagine our educational institution banking on a livable planet and a just, decolonised world. But there is direct evidence of the opposite.

Oxford's colleges invest millions in offshore tax havens, including funds like Collier International V, heavily exposed to fossil fuels

New and Hertford invest directly in fossil fuels and arms corporations

In 2015 the central University declined to fully divest from fossil fuels and arms, choosing a watered-down fossil fuel divestment resolution that moved £0.

WHAT CAN I DO?

Hear us present the case for divestment
